LOCAL FOOD DIRECTORY

Bulkley Valley
Moricetown to Quick

Why Buy Local?

- Supports the local economy
- Reduces trucking and packaging
- Promotes community food security
- Promotes economic diversification and sustainability
- Connects consumers with the producers of their food.
- FRESH is MORE NUTRITIOUS

The following is a list of locally grown and crafted foods available for sale directly from local producers. Availability can be seasonal; please contact each producer directly to learn more about their products.

Acronyms used in this guide:

CO = Certified Organic
SFM = available at the (Smithers) Bulkley Valley Farmers Market

The market is located at the corner of Main St. and Highway 16 and is open from mid-May to September on Saturdays from 8 am until noon. For information on becoming a vendor, contact Market Manager Megan Darcy at 250-847-8832 or mdarcy@uniserve.com.

The Ministry of Agriculture has compiled a 2006 Bulkley Valley Farm Gate Sales Directory which includes producers from as far as Prince Rupert and east of Burns Lake. Please contact the District Agriculturist, Leah Sheffield at 847-7247 or leah.sheffield@gov.bc.ca, if you would like to be added to the new directory or to learn more about local food sources.

Hazelton area food and agricultural products are listed in the Upper Skeena Sustainable Agriculture Directory. Call the Upper Skeena Development Centre at 842-6110.

The Bulkley Valley Local Food Directory was produced with funding by the Bulkley Valley Farmer's Market Association, and in association with the Northern Root Garden, a non-profit community organization promoting local food security through community gardening. Visit the Smithers Community Garden at the corner of Railway and Pacific Avenues and call 847-2327 for more information or to reserve a garden plot.
